An All Things "Royal" Bayreuth Greeting

From your HOSPITALI-TEA hosts, Roberta & Alvin Cappel

The Count and Countess Cappel have been counting the days until the 25th Silver Anniversary Celebration of the RBCC in Cincinnati, Ohio. What else do Counts and Countesses do?

A significant number of German immigrants founded many of Cincinnati's cultural institutions, and during a period of rapid expansion and prominence, residents of Cincinnati began referring to the city as the Queen City. "German immigrants" and a place called "The Queen City"—now what better place to hold an "All Things Royal" convention for people who collect German porcelain?! It all fits right into our THEME!

The Count and I traveled to Cincinnati this past weekend to make sure the Blue Ash Embassy Suite was ready for your royal visit. The beautiful Cincinnati skyline has been prominently featured in a daytime drama and different sitcoms and dramas on TV. It is also the logo for Skyline Chili. Cincinnati chili is a spiced sauce served over noodles and may include cheese/onions/beans and is one of the area's best-known regional foods. Cincinnati has more chili restaurants per capita than any other city in the US or in the World. Hopefully, our plans to serve that before the auction will not "chill-out."

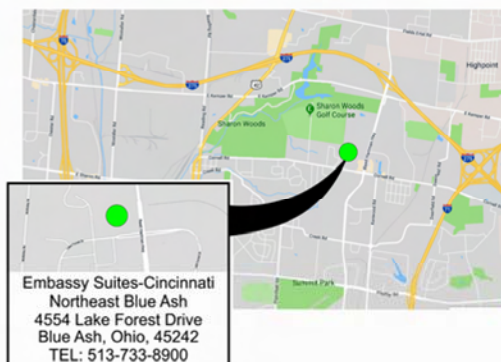

Now, all you Lords and Ladies need to bring a few things with you to this Silver Jubilee:

- (1) YOUR LANYARD, IF YOU HAVE ONE Don't assume because you are royalty, everyone will know "who you are." We will assign your title! (Please leave your swords at home.)
- (2) TREATS If it's too much trouble, or if you don't have time to prepare sole paupiette with crayfish sauce, feel free to bring your usual exquisite petit fours or the popular treats—cakes steeped in maraschino and coffee syrup--whatever your chef has time to prepare will be just fine.
- (3) A SILVER ITEM TO FLAUNT AT THE ROYAL BANQUET Your item will not be confiscated. It is just to show how affluent you are. If you forget to bring something silver to flash at the great banquet hall Saturday night, you may not get to partake of the food. For those of you who just plan to show the silver fillings in your mouth--well, we think that would tarnish your reputation!

Our downstairs maids are busy polishing the silver tea service and punch bowl and ladle for our HospitaliTEA Thursday night. We are keen to impress you, and even keener to give you a hug and a curtsy and welcome you to our 25th RBCC convention. As we mentioned in the last newsletter, the reception Thursday night is going to be a piece of cake!

Convention Hotel

Our convention will be held at Embassy Suites, 4554 Lake Forrest Drive, Blue Ash, Ohio 45242 (northeast of Cincinnati). The cut-off date for reserving within the club block of suites is August 21. The Hotel's direct phone number is (513) 733 - 8900.

From Our President

By Wib Beachy

Fellow Club Members, this is my final message as your President. I can't believe how quickly four years have passed! It has been both an honor and privilege to have served you over this period of time -- covering not one, but two terms.

My thanks go out to all of you who have made my job as easy as it has been. Yes, I've still had to spend a lot of time and effort in doing that which the position requires, especially in planning and overseeing the Conventions. However those tasks would have been impossible without the help and assistance of many of you. Special shout-outs are in order to the other officers, Board members, Auction chairmen and personnel, Hospitality as well as Saturday night Entertainment volunteers, and Newsletter/Website Editors - all of whom have tirelessly worked to make both the Club and the Club Conventions successes during my tenure.

By now you should have made your reservations at the Embassy Suites, 4554 Lake Forrest Drive, Blue Ash, Ohio 45242 (northeast of Cincinnati), and sent in your registration form with remittance for this year's Convention September 6 through 8. If you haven't done so, please do both upon your receipt of this Newsletter. The cut-off date for reserving within the Club block of suites at $115 per night is August 21. The Hotel's direct phone number is (513) 733 - 8900. Remember to simply indicate your days of arrival and departure. If you encounter any problems, let me know and I will try to resolve them.

The list of pieces for the Club Auction has been finalized and is available for viewing on line. Emails announcing that have been sent to you as well. Absentee bids will be accepted until August 25 by contacting Jim and Susan. Both they and I want to thank all of the consignors of pieces in this year's Auction. Our Auctioneer will be Curtis Sharff, who presided over last year's Auction and did a fine job.

The excursion arrangements are in place. If there are any changes to what you indicated on your registration form, please let me know that immediately. We want to have as accurate a count as we can for those attending the Creation Museum tour on Friday and the Belle of Cincinnati riverboat cruise on Saturday afternoon.

If any of you attending the Convention wishes to make a presentation, just let me know and I will schedule it. I've never refused anyone in the past and I'm not about to start now. I will be contacting those of you who answered Question 25 of Alvin's & Roberta's 25 Years, 25 Questions in the affirmative.

I want to make one final comment. While Royal Bayreuth is the reason for our Club's existence, Royal Bayreuth is not the most important aspect of what the Club has to offer -- in my opinion. The most important aspect (to be promoted whenever and wherever possible), is the camaraderie of its members. I've tried to do that through the programming at the Conventions, when the members come together and interact. While learning about Royal Bayreuth is fine in its own right, getting out and about with members in groups on the excursions has proven to be fun and memorable as well for those attending them. I will not only remember but cherish those experiences as much if not more than any discussion about Royal Bayreuth per se held before or by me. This also holds true for the Saturday night entertainment generated after the banquet -- priceless!

Going forward, I wish my successor well. I believe the Club remains viable. I call on every member to do what you can to make the Club not only survive, but thrive!

Remember to Bring....

Here is a checklist for what to bring to convention:

- Lanyards (if you have one)
- Goodies & treats for the hospitality room
- Some impressive silver for the banquet
- Show & tell items
- Wanna-Bees
- Auction items
- Door stops
- RB items for room to room negotiations
- Lots of cash!!!

We look forward to seeing all of you in September

Website News

By Gregg Thacker

Greetings RB Fans! The latest 2018 auction list is online and will be updated until convention. There is a direct link in this newsletter near the listing. That link will stay the same until we remove the list after convention.

We will be busy taking and gathering photos during convention. Convention-goers please remember to capture those "Kodak moments" both en-route and at the big events! We will put those on the website soon after convention to remind us of the fun and share with those unable to attend!

As always, we continue to send out an e-mail blast monthly (or so) with RB news and info. If you are NOT receiving that please send an email to editor@royalbayreuth.org.

While we are still enjoying all the long summer days and activities, convention plans are in full swing. Registrations are still being accepted so get yours in quickly including your excursion options. A Grand Royal Affair is planned and you have a personal invitation. Join us to meet and greet our very own Royal characters. Hope to see you soon in Cincinnati on September 6-8.

Editor's Note About Our Cover

This year, in honor of our 25th club Convention, we chose to share 25 great photos from past events. We have done our best to sort through many photos to find original board and founding members. As tricky as it was, we culled this pile down to just a hundred or so images to give you a bit of a "Walk Down Memory Lane" as you turn the pages... There will be lots more photos shared throughout our "Silver Anniversary". Check out our website for many more that just couldn't fit.

P.S. We STILL love to get photos sent in from you, our fellow members. Please see what you might have you'd like to share!

Editor's Message

Greetings to all our RB friends.

Here we are in August already. Wow. Summer is just flying by...yet again.

We are all busy as can be getting things ready for the upcoming BIG event in Cincinnati. This will actually be the 19th RBCC Convention Gregg and I have attended. As we were going through all the thousands of photos from past club events to share for this, our club's 25th Convention, we asked ourselves this question...Why DO we look forward to our annual conventions SO much???

Perhaps it's simply the joy of traveling... to experience new places and visit old places we may have been before and remembered fondly. Maybe to try out the local food scene, see unfamiliar cityscapes, visit museums, antique shops and hopefully a lovely garden or park. People watching. All the positives of breaking our daily routines and experiencing something fresh and different.

We certainly LOVE seeing all the beautiful (and often rare) examples

For Sale

By Deford Brown

I, like Harold Brandenburg, would like to downsize my collection. Therefore I am offering the following excellent-to-mint condition pieces at well below value! Shipping will be an extra fee. If interested, please call 410-479-1692 or write: Deford Brown 26281 Hignutt Rd. Denton MD 21629. Thank you!

of our favorite vintage porcelain. We enjoy seeing everything of Royal Bayreuth, even the pieces we don't collect (yet!) Having a chance to bid on these wonderful things at our stellar club auctions, perhaps find an RB treasure for sale in someone's room, or just the pleasure of learning something new always makes it worth the trip.

But what truly makes these events SO special to us, is the gathering together of our fellow club members/old friends who have been part of our lives for so many years. We have met so many interesting and knowledgeable people, and formed so many great friendships at our club events. We have travelled together, quested after RB together and truly enjoyed each other's company. Many feel like family after all our time together! It has enriched our lives, taught us much and given us many fond memories. We still look forward to each and every one!

Safe travels to all our attending members. We'll see you in Cinci!!!

From the Auction Chairs

By Jim Lapp & Susan Szymanski

We are putting the final touches on yet another auction of fine offerings this year. As of this writing (7/30/18) we are no longer accepting submissions for inclusion in this year's presentation. Our thanks and appreciation goes out to all those who have consigned to make this a stellar event for this, the 25th annual RBCC convention.

In the next week or so the auction list with photos will be posted online for your consideration. As in the past, there is an absentee bid accommodation for all not attending this year's convention. There are two options, through the auction staff or by a fellow member of your choosing. If you wish to use our services, please send the item numbers and your maximum bids for each piece by mail to our address, 4909 Curly Hill Road Doylestown, PA 18902 or by email at jimlapp@hotmail.com before August 25th. The high bidders agree to pay any shipping, insurance and packing fees in addition to the final cost of the item(s) they have won. Final totals will be calculated as soon as possible after the auction's closing.

We endeavor to describe accurately each piece presented including any issues. This year we have taken multiple detailed photos of each item and you should consider them as part of the description. If any damage is found on the day of the auction it will be noted before bidding starts or the lot may be pulled. As in the past, the club offers no warranties and any lot sold is on an "as is" basis without possibility of return.

We are looking forward to seeing old friends and meeting new in Cincinnati this year and those not able to be there don't forget to get those absentee bids in early! Good hunting to all!
